Dear Mary.

I have enjoyed going with you this year. I hope we remain friends a long time as we look back over the past year we can think of all the fun and trouble we have gotten into. Lets try to get to know each other better in the next year. You are one of the nice persons I have gone with in a long time. I've just about wrote my hand off writing to you this past winter. I hope we can write you again this summer and next winter.

We Salute . . .

. . . the Spirit of Wilkes Central

In the loom there is a pattern; the pattern is a year . . .
It speaks of love and sadness,
It speaks of doubt, and work, and sometimes failure . . .
It is broken by a thread of gold,
A thread that is the spirit of Central High.

Work and worry are as nothing when o'er passed by that thread.
It meets failure, and the darkness passes into light;
It lends a lift to the practice-worn athlete.
To homework, and cramming in the late hours, and test day
It is the impetus that makes us work toward the fulfilling of a dream.

Spirit rouses itself within us at the contest of the hour,
It rolls from countless voices and speeds the runner onward.
Spirit joins the students in crowded halls that empty into the clouded future.
Spirit is the bond between the hearts that mingled here . . .
Hearts that become entwined in the thread that is the spirit that is the gold.

—Eddy Stafford

FOREWORD

The spirit of Central can be found in the laughter and scuffle of the three o'clock rush from the parking lot, that swim in the pool on a hot day, Dr. Thompson's opening assembly address, clattering of machines in typing classes, the patient efforts of a Home Ec. student to sew a STRAIGHT seam, the late, long hours spent on an English research paper, the butterflies in the stomach before the Choral Contest, or Tuesday and "Hey, which club meets today?"

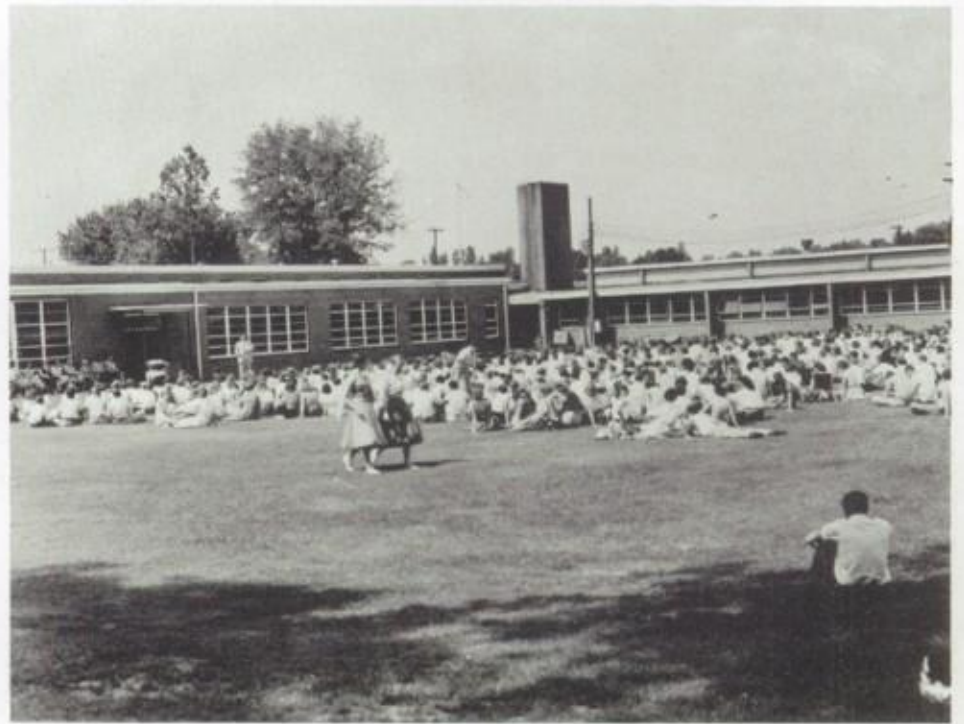

This spirit is seen on the familiar faces that flash by in the halls, the mud smeared faces of football players, and make-up besmeared faces in the Senior Play.

Each, in his own special way, was a part of this year's Spirit of Central. The more he gave of himself, the more he found of the Spirit—the Spirit which we have attempted to record in this edition of GREEN AND GOLD.

The spirit of Central is in the group . . . the rushing mass of faces in the halls . . . shared tension and silence during Mid-term . . . perspiration streaked faces of the lunchroom workers . . . student council meetings . . . parents at P.T.A. . . . noisy, chattering typing classes . . . home ec. students laughing at the "burnt up" bouble boiler . . . crowds at the football games . . . "Lets show the boys we are behind them" . . . "Then Eagles" echoing through the basketball busses . . . handful of daffodils given to teachers by F.T.A. members during "Honor the Teacher" month . . . the county wide recreation meeting of the 4-H . . . the backstage ad-libbing at the Senior Play practice . . . the student body honoring outstanding members on Awards Day . . . the long hot drill session in the band . . . afternoon practice in the Y for the sports minded.

Attentiveness and interest, on a warm spring day, prove that the central spirit is more than on the surface.

A little encouragement, like this steak supper, is always a great morale builder for athletics.

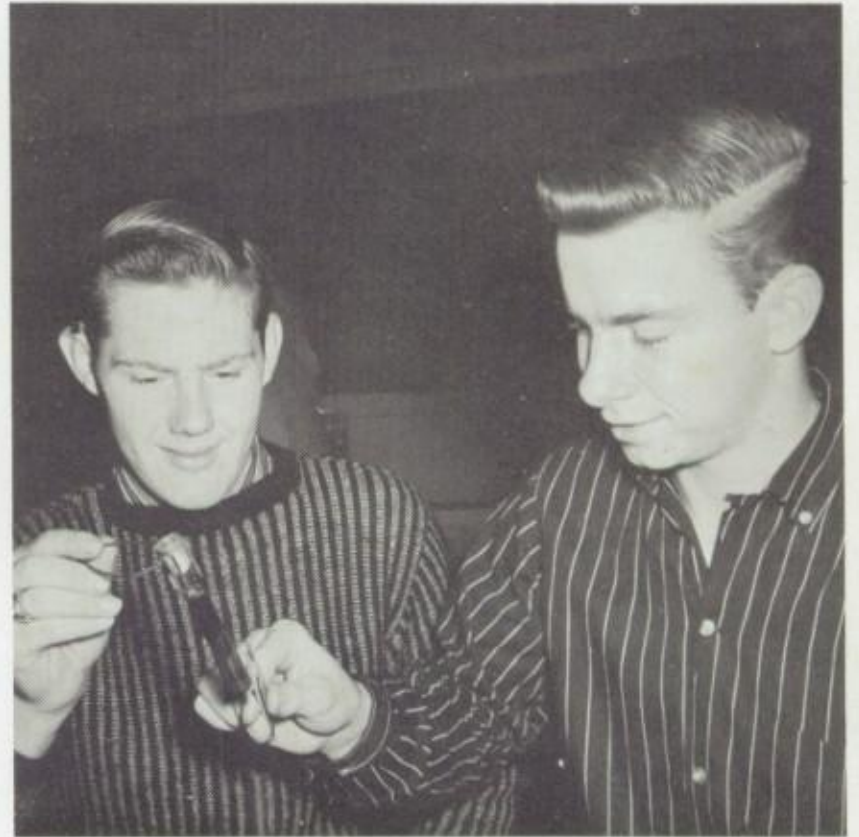

Boys in industrial arts class give practical assistances to the school by refinishing the desks.

Central's academic program requires many hours of individual preparation.

Learning was a most important part of the Spirit of Central . . . "cramming" for exams . . . dissection of worms in biology . . . "Miss Moretz, may I check out 15 books for my research paper?" . . . the feel of new books at the beginning of the year . . . day after day doing that final bit on an assignment . . . the proud feeling of wearing a green and gold hood at graduation.

Charles Lackey and Bob Transou discover that chemistry can be fun and beneficial.

The rush between classes, the friendly "hello's," and jovial appearance of these students well represent Central's pleasant atmosphere.

Along with a student's eagerness to learn, Central teachers are willing to give personal instruction.

The theme of Wilkes Central is preparation for the future, and college day makes the future more real.

The spirit shone through those who stood alone, the leaders . . . those who sounded the student body's voice to "How this school should run" . . . serving at the P.T.A. supper . . . "Yes, I know your son. He's in my room." . . . sponsoring college day . . . student council members waiting patiently outside the Home Ec. rooms while the representatives have coffee and doughnuts.

But the spirit can shine through those who lead only as the student groups follow. Here we find the true spirit of Central, in those who serve as individuals to make up a group . . . in "Hey don't mark on that desk, it's SCHOOL property" . . . "I can't go; I have to study" . . . ("Who cares where he lives? He's a great guy") . . . "Sure I'll stay and help with the decorations for the dance." . . . the students decided to go by the rules, to keep up a high academic standing, to support extra-curricular activities, to let personal worth be the yardstick for measurement at Central. In living this year at Central the student body found within themselves and their actions the spirit of Central.

Co-operation and interest are tangible forces which are seen in a P.T.A. supper.

Interest in all phases of life is shown in this study and observation of young children as these future homemakers take charge for a day.
A successful exhibition of practicable learning encourages good quality—a trait of Wilkes Central.

Central's spirit is shown in the more practical preparation for life . . . the pride in the face of a first-year Home Ec. student as she cooks her first meal or makes her first blouse . . . the "all girl" wedding in third year . . . those lectures on cattle judging and tool identification in 'Ag. . . or working at home on projects . . . filling out endless pages of journals in bookkeeping . . . filling miniature letters in exasperating little cardboard files for office management.

The practical application of chemistry proves that study is worth while.

The atmosphere in a bank increases the incentive to understand economics.

Indian war dance adds to the study of early American Literature in Freshmen English.

The spirit of our school is founded on Central's purpose—to teach, and to develop the whole of each individual. We have learned that in order to develop, we must work. How much we grew and what factors of our personalities we developed depended on what we worked on, whether it was outlining a chemistry chapter before the class lecture . . . forcing tired, aching legs to run around the track field just one more time . . . working on the "clean up" crew for the Jr.-Sr. . . . working as an office practice girl. In working to learn, there was developed a spirit, which prompts a former student to say proudly, "Yes, I'm a graduate of Wilkes Central High School!"

Careful planning and first hand experience by Mrs. Smith gives the Centralites tasty, well balanced meals.

Willingness and busyness of these helpers reflect the high standards of our cafeteria.

Central's spirit sounds through the whirr of Mr. Bussel's waxing machine, footsteps in the lonely halls as Lane Wood helps Mr. Bussel after school . . . the clatter of plates as the students who work in the cafeteria serve the long lines of hungry Centralites . . . "Hey, Mrs. Smith, can I have five pieces of bread?" . . . the scrape of sandpaper as "Doc's Boys" refinish the desks. The spirit could be seen in the cleanliness and efficiency of the school.

Mr. Bussel brushes up the unusually peaceful hall before another rush of Central feet.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. J. FLOYD WOODWARD
Superintendent of North
Wilkesboro Public Schools

Superintendent Woodward, with the aid of school architect, points out to members of the Board of Education details in plans for the new gymtorium. BOARD OF EDUCATION members, left to right, standing: Mr. Russell Gray, Mr. Boyd Stout, Mr. Lewis Hill Jenkins, architect; Mr. Clarence Coffey, Superintendent Woodward, Dr. Clint Bentley, Mr. Weaver Starr; seated: Mrs. Palmer Horton, vice chairman; Mr. Edward S. Finley, chairman; and Mr. Paul Osborne; not pictured: Mr. Sam Ogilvie, Mr. Bryan Gilreath, and Mr. Ralph J. Williams.

The North Wilkesboro Public Schools' Superintendent and the School Boards of both North Wilkesboro and Wilkesboro have great responsibilities and make many important decisions in providing for the students of Wilkes Central. This year they have planned and made provision for the gymtorium soon to be built. As usual they are alert to provide the best teachers available.

The Principal of Wilkes Central continually meets the challenges of a large growing high school. Improved curriculum and better scholastic opportunities for all pupils receive his constant attention.

DR. H. E. THOMPSON
Principal of Wilkes Central

FACULTY

"She surely does make us work! . . . but, you know, she's a GOOD teacher!"
 "We were wonderin.' Would you be our advisor for this club?"

The Wilkes Central faculty not only taught well their respective subjects, but they also found time to take an active interest in extra-curricular student activities. In and out of class they showed Centralities how to better live.

SENIOR OFFICERS

Judging from her smile, JULIA ANN, our class secretary, has convinced BILL, vice-president; LINDA JO, treasurer; and, GARY, president, that she has found the right Senior play.

"Were you really in Paris, Henry?" . . . "Boy, was that some beach party!" . . . "It doesn't seem like September." It was, however, time to get down to studies.

"Blast 'um" Brr . . . those firecrackers on the senior homecoming float surely looked cold. The night of the game was even colder, yet the bleachers were crowded. Weren't we proud of our lovely classmates, the queen and her court!

"I think I've got a cold." No, it was Asian Flu, arriving just in time for the Merit Exam. A week out of school cured most students, but wasn't a shortened Christmas vacation disappointing?

"When do we get our calling cards?"

"Will you give me one of yours?" . . . "Who is she dating? A COLLEGE boy?"

"This is Wally Segap" . . . "Are you ready for Mid-terms?" "Well, maybe we won't have to take finals."

Seniors managed to convey to "lowly underclassmen" the traditional idea of "Absolute Senior superiority in all areas of endeavor," but they also beamed proudly on Awards Day when their friends were honored.

The last few months of school were busy ones . . . being measured for caps and gowns . . . applying for a job, visiting colleges for interviews, working especially hard for honors, and finally practicing for graduation.

W-E-L-C-O-M-E, voices rang out through the cold damp air . . . "The Stars and Stripes Forever," seeming to echo in the still, foggy valley . . . "Come on and fight, Wilkes Central" . . . "All right, boys, just one more yard! Whew! That was a close one" . . . How familiar this Friday night football ritual had become, as we won and lost with the team, sharing the spirit of Central in a special and never-to-be duplicated way.

This year was certainly marked by fads! . . . bucket pocketbooks . . . flats and hose . . . sneakers . . . crew neck and heavy knit sweaters . . . dancing the sugar foot . . . eating under the rain shelter at Jack's . . . "April Love " or "Jailhouse Rock" . . . buckles on shoes . . . torredors . . . red, all colors of it . . . and of course M-I-C-K-E-Y M-O-U-S-E.

"Ka, Ke, K, . . . How DO you spell candestine?" John asks Rebecca.

"Double, double, toil and trouble," strange voices came from Room 15. A puppet show of Macbeth was underway. Two chemistry students chuckled over the balloon that just would not be inflated. "G-Guess what! I just held a thousand dollar bill!" That was quite a thrill for the office management class and economics students who visited the bank. "Do you have the AUDACITY to doubt my VERACITY?" Seniors showed evidence of vocabulary study.

As he called out the names, Dr. Thompson smiled that special smile reserved for Seniors at their Graduation. Slowly, with attempted dignity you walked forward and with a shaking hand grasped the diploma extended by Superintendent Woodward, silently saying goodbye to your days at Central.

The long hours of practice on the Senior Play were rewarded by the overflow crowd which attended.

"Oh! I hope my ring fits!" . . . "Subscribe for a magazine, mam?" . . . "Don't tell our Jr.-Sr. theme."

"Hey! Watch that LADDER; it's gonna' fall!" . . . "What'll I do? Three boys want to sit by the same girl!" . . . In the last-minute rush it seemed as if the Jr.-Sr. would never become a reality; but finally, when it did come, Juniors realized that the hard work, fun and fellowship which they had shared in creating the Jr.-Sr. gave them a double pleasure and meaning for that night.

A wide sprinkling of those prized possessions, letters in sports and band, witnessed to Juniors' active participation in extra-curricular activities. More scholarly students worked on essay contests or debate. Their reward was membership in the Green Key and serving as marshals.

"Ladies and gentlemen, as you well know, my candidate" . . . "Who do you think will get to be president of the student body?" . . . "Vote for" . . . It was election time again and the student body should choose from the Junior class their student council leaders.

Juniors began to think of September when they would be the leaders and dignified Seniors at Central.

JUNIORS

With pride Juniors—Nellie Owens, Rozella Wyatt and Doris Mastin—put on their class rings.

Hope combines her artistic talent with Brenda's ingenuity and Elaine's competent supervision to produce one of the best Junior-Seniors yet.

These SOPHOMORE OFFICERS—STEVE BUMGARNER, president; ELAINE MOORE, vice-president; SANDRA WALTER, secretary; and JIM ELLER, treasurer; are preparing to serve as hosts and hostesses for the Junior-Senior.

"For Brutus is an honorable man" . . . "Lemme see your driver's license" . . . "Is he going STEADY?" . . . sneaking down the halls without a pass . . . getting caught . . . experience in detention halls . . . Latin conjugations and logarithms . . . Sophomores went through the usual initiation of hard work and collision with the rules, but they managed to pack into their days the thrill of looking forward to their Junior year and class rings.

FRESHMEN

School life was newness and challenge to the freshmen. The green and yellow halls were filled with the excitement of the first football game, first research paper, and first real crush. Detention halls and Doc's rules were dreaded things. Freshmen reached out and grasped for the whole of life at Central and, becoming accustomed to it, began to take on the airs of upcoming sophomores.

DRUM MAJOR

Larry Billings, Drum Major

It's been a pleasure to have you this year in band; you've done fine work. Robinson

"Come on and fight, Wilkes Central! . . . the crowd singing along "Victors" . . . Two long lines of green-clad bandmen . . . hot drills . . . "Do I turn right two steps . . . no, left four steps . . . follow the man in front of you and hope he's right . . . working hard to learn music . . . occasionally hitting half tones not in music . . . Mr. Robinson directing . . . "All right, you birds, GET DOWN TO WORK!" . . . noisy, fun-packed band busses . . . the long ride home after a lost ball game . . . shared sympathy . . . pride in marching in the April Festival Parade and Homecoming Parade; playing in the Christmas Concert, Duke College Day ball game and District Contest . . . working together and hoping for a good rating to take to the State Contest.

Memories of these activities and friendships shared in the band cause graduates to come back every now and then to visit in their old bandroom.

GLEE CLUB

"All right, stop the talking and let's get to work." Miss Clements' voice rang out through the cacaphony of voices. Every Tuesday and during the few night sessions, Glee Club members did work, learning the music for civic club programs or contests, hoping for high ratings and community recognition. How tense they were, waiting for the contest ratings to be posted, and how happy when they got a superior (1).

The work had paid off not only in high ratings but in memories of a job well done, of friendships formed in singing together and of representing the school at the Mars Hill or Greensboro choral clinics.

CHORUSES

Choral students had a busy year presenting music for the radio devotions during the World Week of Prayer, programs for the Kiwanis and the Lions Clubs, and learning that all-important contest music. There was time though for fun such as the picnic when 2nd period played 3rd period in baseball.

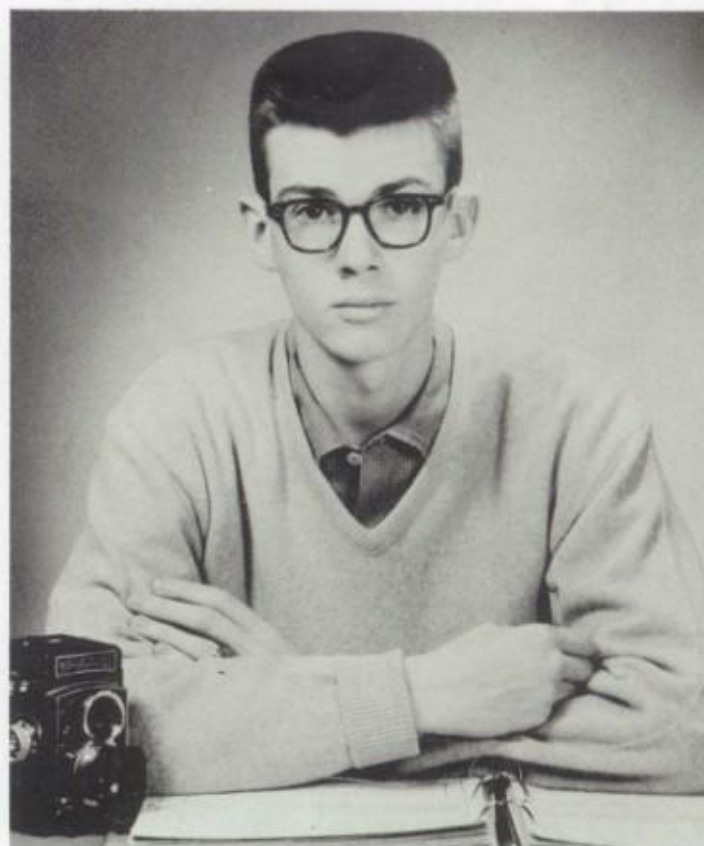

Left: Second Period Chorus officers are Mary Jo Lowe, librarian; Ann Vickery, social chairman; Linda Phillips, secretary and treasurer; Sherill Bryant, president. Right: Third Period Chorus officers are Daniel Nichols, president; Sarah Meadows, social chairman; Fred Pearson, librarian; Claude Whittington, secretary and treasurer.

Third Period Chorus, left to right, First Row: Joan Hayes, Lillie Joines, Shirley Moore, Wanda Stamper, Judy Gore, Sarah Meadows. Second Row: Martha Wheeler, Carol Carlowe, Dorothy Snyder, Betty Huie, Glenda Shumate, Elaine Anderson. Third Row: J. V. Reins, Herbert Pardue, Claude Whittington, Daniel Nichols, Fred Pearson, Joe Brooks.

"Who is the guy in this picture? I never saw him before!" . . .
"My tongue is all stuck up licking picture labels" . . . "I just sold my FIRST AD! Wasn't so bad after all." . . . "Would you like to subscribe for an annual?" . . . Selling ads, identifying pictures, collecting facts for the student directory, working on copy—what seemed an endless amount of work entailed in "putting out" an annual faced the small group working in Room 15.

HENRY ABSHER

GREEN AND GOLD STAFF

"Hey, Look at this one!" . . . Rebecca Lowe, Lois Ann Myers, Blan Minton, Toni Thompson, and Sarah Jane Payne find identifying pictures very interesting.

Rebecca Gilreath, Judy Yates, Mary Hendren, Betty Harwell, Kay Forester, and Nancy King Newton proofread the copy.

GREEN AND GOLD STAFF

MRS. FLOYD WOODWARD
Adviser to Green and Gold Staff

Each staff member had a job to do, and working together the members managed to publish a record of this year's activities. The final reward came when each member proudly opened the '58 GREEN AND GOLD and eagerly inspected the "special part" that "I helped with."

Will any Tri-Hi-Yer ever forget the thrill of being installed—lighting the candle, being pinned by her big sister . . . the "make a speech" program (Was your favorite subject "The Sewage System in Russia" or "Why I Hate Boys?") . . . the after-ball-game dances . . . working at the concession stand . . . the simple, moving, Christmas program . . . exchanging presents . . . the kitten which someone received, peeping out of the wrapping . . . "Wouldn't you like to buy a pennant?" . . . the New Year's dedication service . . . familiar faces around the campfire . . . "We are climbing Jacob's ladder."

Each person has her own special memories, but this year the Tri-Hi-Y, with Miss Theda Holder, advisor, offered many and varied activities and programs, Christian fellowship permeating all.

Top: "Gimme a big orange Drank," Shouts a customer to the Tri-Hi-Y girls who sold concessions at the basketball games.

HI-Y

"Did Andy ever pay for his T-shirt?" . . . O. K. You guys, quiet it down will you!" male voices traveled out over the air. "We're not making all of it" . . . "Some one PLEASE go over and tell those girls to be quiet" . . . But there was a serious side to the meetings as well, signified by quiet during the devotions and interest in the programs.

The programs showed a looking forward to years ahead. Guest speakers—Mr. W. D. Halfacre, Mr. Richard Johnson, and Mr. J. H. Whicker—spoke on Christian ideals as related to business.

Army and Navy recruiters explained military obligations and different ways of fulfilling them.

At Christmas members sold candy to raise money for the World Service Project, "Building for Brotherhood," promoted in co-operation with the Tri-Hi-Ys.

Avalon Minton and Jerry Moore were representatives to the Inter-state Hi-Y convention.

LIBRARIANS

"May I check this book out?" . . . "Yes, sign your name right here" . . . "Hey, Joe, did you see that movie last night?" . . . "Please, can't you be a little quieter?" . . . "Where can I find Cicada?" . . . "Look under insects; it's in the 5937's" . . . "Ug! We're shellacking book backs again today" . . . "Just look at that stack of books!" . . . "Wonder what we are going to use for the bulletin board this month?"

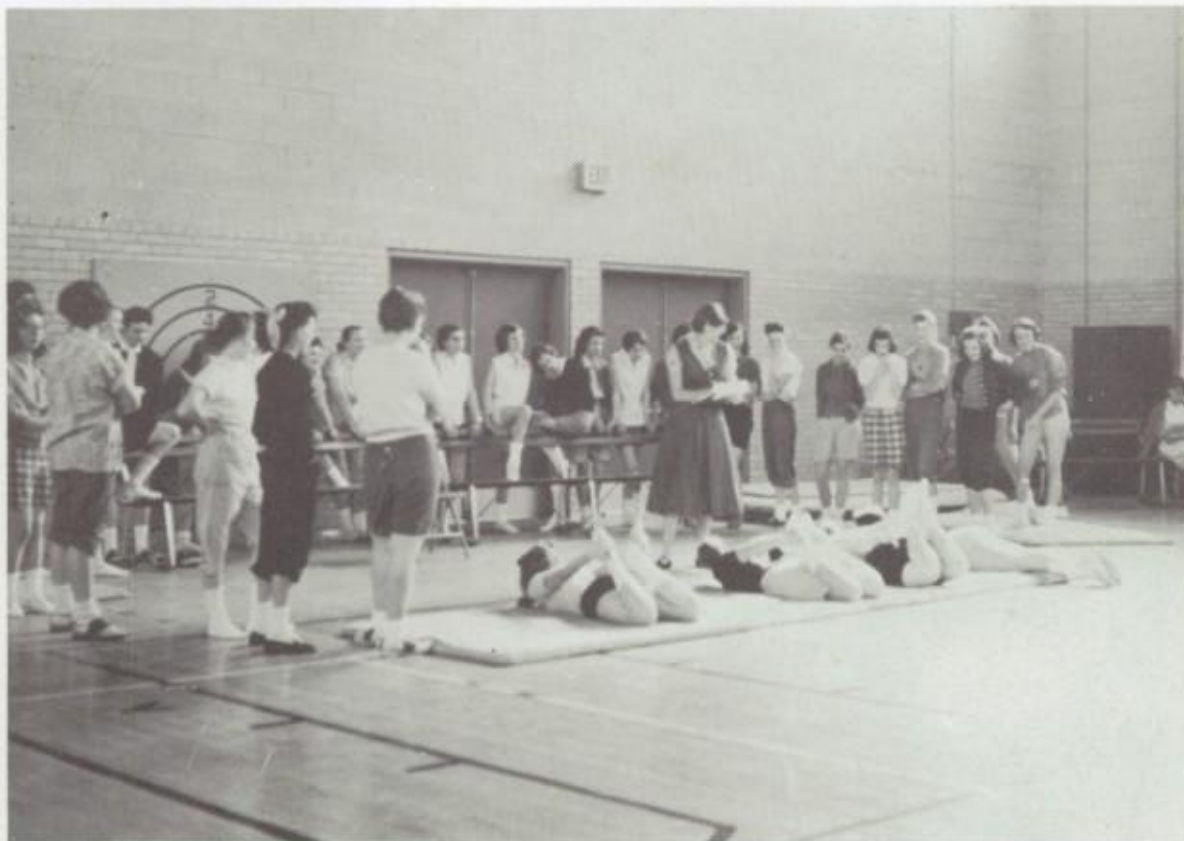

The Librarian's Club is a service organization under the guidance of Miss Moretz. Its purpose is creating more interest in reading. The librarians furnish information to those unfamiliar with the Dewey decimal system and help to make the library a pleasant, quiet place where one may browse, read, study, or perhaps thumb through a magazine.

As one of her duties, Carolyn Minton types the overdue book list.

Mary Hendren takes pride in keeping our books straight.

The Girls' Athletic Association, an organization for freshmen and sophomore girls interested in athletics, met every Tuesday. Organized into teams, the girls played such games as volleyball, softball, basketball and track.

In the G.A.A., under the leadership of Coach Hubbard, members learned not only the skills required in playing the games, but also the rules and history of the sports, and the refereeing. Most important, though, in the give and take of the games the girls learned to practice good sportsmanship.

G A. A.

Tumbling is just one of the many activities of the Girl's Athletic Association.

TRANSPORTATION

"Oh, brother! Another muddy road! Are we going to sli-i-i-de off the road? Whew! I thought we would hit the ditch that time. All right, boys, SIT DOWN; we aren't going to have any fighting on here. DON'T stick your head out the window—or, your arm either. No, I don't have a hole in my head. I saw you through the mirror, that's how.

Sometimes I'd like to quit driving a bus; but when I drive up in front of the school, I feel good, somehow. Maybe it's because I know that children didn't have to walk through that mud I had such a time with, or because I'm proud of a safe driving record, or because I have a feeling of being a part of the largest high school fleet in the state. Maybe it's all of these!

Student council members soon learned the meaning of "honors with service." Giving up many other Tuesday activities, they represented their classes in planning and directing student activities. They also found themselves in the roles of disciplinarians in cracking down on lunchline breakers and "sentencing" them to detention hall. Members served at the P.T.A. Dinner and Open House, helping acquaint the parents with the school.

The Student Council sponsored Red Cross and Polio campaigns. Members directed the College Day program. Rolling up their sleeves, they did much of the work on the Home-coming floats, sponsored the Parade and Green and Gold Day. Mrs. Robert Taylor offered counsel and guidance when needed.

STUDENT COUNCIL

At this meeting of the Student Council, the members find that nominating next year's Student Council president can be a trying task.

"And WHO is gonna' be the patient?" . . . Nursing Home Ec. students demonstrated the correct way to make a bed with a patient in it, giving their fellow members a sample of what they had learned in class. In order to discover more about the nursing profession itself, members invited nurses who had specialized in different fields to tell them about their work.

"I thought this was supposed to be a tea." . . . "It is" . . . "But we're drinking Cokes" . . . "Do YOU like tea?" . . . "No" . . . "O. K. then." Due to the popularity of cokes the F.N.A. December Tea turned out to be a Coke Party.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Edwin Gilreath, adviser, and the sponsorship of Wilkes Medical Association, the F.N.A. spent a year learning about their chosen profession specialization, scholarships and nursing schools.

They also had unforgettable moments of fellowship.

"Buddy, when I'm a teacher I'm gonna make my students work hard!" . . . "Yes, but each one has to be treated differently" . . . "You have to inspire learning, not drill it into their heads." So went the discussions in F.T.A. of "What I'll do someday." Under their adviser, Mrs. Vannoy, working and learning together, members began to realize the responsibility and challenge of teaching. They explored the opportunities of different types of teaching—college, high school, and elementary. They learned educational requirements and scholarship opportunities. They listened attentively to Dr. Thompson's interesting and informative speech on the teaching profession.

Proudly wearing their F.T.A. pins, Future Teachers sponsored the F.T.A. week, trying to increase interest in and appreciation of the teaching profession.

FUTURE FARMERS

"Isn't she a BEAUTY! . . . Best tractor around these parts. Now we gotta pay for her." Future Farmers worked hard raising funds to pay for their new tractor. Some built bird houses—five hundred, to be exact. Many sold peanuts at football games, took part in the F.F.A.—sponsored donkey ball game, sold candy and helped conduct the cake sale sponsored by the chapter sweetheart, Florence Smallbones.

Other activities included working to improve livestock "chains" and to establish a sheep "chain," giving food to needy families at Christmas, and installing welcome signs on the highways leading into Wilkes County.

In the tri-county contests, F.F.A. members won two identification firsts, and second place in the seeds and crops contest. A majority of the 118 members took part in the Dixie Classic Fair at Winston-Salem.

Under the direction of Messrs. Pearson and Switzer, F.F.A. members are becoming good farmers and good citizens.

Dear Roger, Dewitt, and Wade:
Thank you F.F.A. boys for our new houses.

Love,
The Squirrels

The pride of the F.F.A. is their newly purchased tractor. Alvis and Dr. Thompson look on as Bill makes a payment to Mr. Rowan Motsinger of the Blue Ridge Tractor Company.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

"My Goodness! How did you get all that jewelry on? . . . and those horrible clothes!" . . . The F.H.A. started off the year with an initiation party for jean-clad new members.

The bake sale at Belk's came next, then the long-awaited mother-daughter banquet. Mothers felt pride as the Jr. Homemaker awards were presented, and (for a change) they ate their daughters' cooking.

Members attended the F.H.A. rallies in Statesville and Raleigh. During F.H.A. week they washed windows and planted flowers on school grounds to beautify the campus.

In the spring came the election of officers and the solemn installation of white-clad officers.

Judy Church, Barbara Reavis, Sue Harrold Opal Hayes, Barbara Combs, Carol Brock and Mary Neahr take pride in the new curtains which they have made.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS

"What business subjects do you use in your work?" . . .
 "Just think . . . two whole days (out of school) for the Convention!" . . . "What is the name of the hotel where we'll stay?" . . . "What am I gonna' wear?"

Under the direction of Mrs. Scroggs, advisor, the F.B.L.A. is an organization offering recreation, fellowship, and the chance to work with others to develop members into competent and aggressive business leaders. The club as a project conducted a survey of graduates to find out which business subjects have proved most useful.

Many Members attended the F.B.L.A. State Convention in Ashville, where they took part in the Spelling, Parliamentary Procedure and Speaking Contests.

"How many Polio Crutches did we sell?" . . . "Hey, we made sixty-three dollars and seventy-five cents on the cake sale." . . . "I surely did enjoy that New Year's Eve Dance." . . . The Kappa Tri-Hi-Y, a newly formed "Y" group of freshmen and sophomore girls, with the guidance of Miss Beatrice Pearson, advisor, certainly had a busy year.

These girls were really active carrying out the installation service, putting on a cake sale, adopting a needy family at Christmas, sponsoring the New Year's Dance, selling crutches for the Polio fund drive, selling thin mints to raise money for the World Service Project, and participating in the World Week of Prayer and Brotherhood in co-operation with the other Hi-Y groups.

Elaine Moore, secretary; Sandra Walter, chaplain; Ann Brookshire, vice-president; Carol Lou James, president; Susan Forester, treasurer; Robbie West, sergeant-at-arms these led the KAPPA TRI-HI-Y with their efficient abilities.

Bottom: These members, Susanne Somers, Ann Moore and Ann Compton Johnson, earn money for their World Service Project by selling candy.

KAPPA TRI-HI-Y

OFFICE PRACTICE

The monitors, who sometimes seem like forbidding sentinels at the end of the long lonely halls, are really indispensable. The girls, under Mr. Hadley's supervision, gave up study halls to check pass cards, call down noisy conversationalists, collect absence slips, and run errands for teachers; consequently, Central has quiet and orderly halls.

Office Practice girls Carol Sebastian, Katie Mathis, Janett Fletcher, Ann Pardue, Becky Walker, Carolyn Minton, Ann Staley, Martha Parsons, Raydell Billings, Ruth Johnson, Gladys Walker, Sue Byrd, and Shirley Holder helped to make office work run smoothly.

The neat efficient students Elizabeth Brooks, Jerry Elledge, Josephine Moore, Linda Howell, Linda Eller, Virginia Cleary, Louise Benton, Madelyn Shumate, Margaret Wells, Jane Taylor, Darlene Edminston, Shirlene Church, Betty Teague and Brenda Brookshire keep the office in "tip-top" running order.

GREEN KEY

The auditorium was quiet as President Payne explained the purposes of the Green Key to encourage leadership, participation in extra-curricular activities, and high scholastic achievement. Seniors wondered, "Will I be chosen?" Then came the thrill of hearing the names, the applause, the handshake of old members and the pride of being accepted into Central's honor club.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Wilkes Central Chapter of the National Honor Society recognizes scholastic achievement at Central. The members, former wearers of the yellow hood at Commencement ceremonies, plan to induct new members yearly at the time of graduation. Officers are: Thomas Foster, President; Bettie Chloe Payne, Vice-President; Jessica Marlow, Secretary; and, Otis Hendren, Treasurer.

Members of the NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY are front to back, first row: Betty N. McIver, Judith Burke, Jessica Marlow, Mary A. Brame, Colleen Moore, Gaynell McEntire, Reggie Moore. Second row: Thomas Foster, Mary Spainhour, Bettie C. Payne, Shirley Mastin, Pat Kolodny. Third row: Rhoda J. Bryan, Chris McNeill, Paula Lenderman, Otis Hendren, Joan Forester, Pat Woodward, Jody Doughton.

Second place in the Northwest Conference and a 6-2 conference record climaxed an exciting and praiseworthy season for our Eagles. With loyal fans following action closely, our gridiron men defeated top ranking foe after foe, allowing opponents only 33 points while scoring a total 161 themselves.

HUDSON (6-0): A rainsoaked field and steady rain limited offensive action, the only TD being made early in the first period. Defensive action was especially good, however, the only threat being in the second period when Hudson drove to our eight.

TAYLORSVILLE (25-0): Central racked up a relatively easy victory, Moore scoring 2TD's on 10 and 40 yard dashes and passing to Vannoy, who carried for the 3rd and ran 48 yards from scrimmage for the 4th.

HICKORY (2-7): Quilici blasted through Hickory's line to nail their QB on a safety early in the first period. Seesawing penalties, fumbles, and intercepted passes kept fans in constant suspense, while stalwart defense held our rivals, favored with us for first place in the conference, until the last five minutes.

MORGANTON (18-0): Speed, good blocking, and a stout defense gave the Eagles a decided win and renewed hopes for the conference title. Passes to Pipes and Pardue accounted for 12 points, and elusive run by Vannoy, for 6.

MT. AIRY (37-0): Before a jubilant homecoming crowd, our Eagles scored in every quarter for a brilliant non-conference win. Vannoy scored on runs of 7 and 50 yards, Riggs, 51, McEntire, 30, and White, 60, for five of the six TD's. The other came on a 15 yard pass from Moore to Vannoy.

ELKIN (12-0): Crippled by injuries and running out of QB's, Central handed Elkin their first defeat. Rain, again hampered offensive action, but defense was strong.

BALL

Third row: Augustine Quilici, Tommy Frazier, Robert Pipes, Bill Riggs, Wallace Meade, Jim Spainhour, Penny Wray. Fourth row: Coach Hoffman, Odell White, C. G. Walsh, Durant Ball, Jerry Haynes, Roger Eller John Kerbaugh, Russell Gambill, Coach Branch.

ELKIN (12-0): Crippled by injuries and running out of QB's, Central handed Elkin their first defeat. Rain, again hampered offensive action, but defense was strong.

MARION (7-19): Outweighed 20 pounds per boy and handed a series of bad breaks, our Eagles played a hard-fought game. A strong defense, however, forced our visitors to us air attacks for scoring. The TD and conversion was made by White after the Eagles put on a drive of 65 yards.

LENIOR (18-0): In the last few seconds of the second quarter, Moore hit Vannoy with a scoring pass. The game had been closely played until then, but our Eagles went on to score twice in the second half, holding Lenior scoreless.

NEWTON-CONOVER (13-0): Several long runs, well executed plays, and solid defense gave our Eagles another scoreless opponent. Two TD's by McEntire and a conversion by White composed the score. A tackle by Quilici on the five yard line deterred a possible TD by Newton.

VALDESE (21-7): Victory over our arch rivals gave us the opportunity to tie for the conference title, by playing Marion the following week. As usual Valdese was out to get us, and the game was an exciting contest from beginning to end. WC took advantage of several Valdese blunders, making two consecutive TD's in less than a minute of playing time.

ANNDORA INGLE, Homecoming Queen

"Wonder who she is! Who do you think's the Queen?"
 "S-s-sh, we'll find out in a minute!"

The sponsors, each proud that she had been chosen to represent that special football player, were already assembled on the field. The homecoming court, chosen by the student body, was gingerly escorted to their positions among the sponsors. Dr. Thompson moved forward with the crown and a bouquet of red roses. The announcer said, "The Queen, ladies, and gentlemen, is Miss Anndora Ingle."

This was a welcome climax to the past week of electing the court, voting for the Queen, and wondering just who she could be.

We were content with our choices and pleased that we could boast so many pretty girls in Wilkes Central.

HOMECOMING COURT

Members of the queens court were Elaine Moore, Sandra Walter, Marie Brooks, Carolyn Mitchell, Anndora Ingle, queen; Julia Elledge, Judy Bouchelle, Brenda Bumgarner, and Shirley Porter.

Our CHEERLEADERS are, left to right: Linda Monday, Rita Summers, Linda Eller, Julia Elledge, Rebecca Lowe, Sandra Marshall and Diane Kuenzel.

JULIA—the chief

Victory - That's Our Cry!

"Hey, Julie, what're we wearin' tonight?" is an important question to a cheerleader who's been working all week to charter that student bus, make posters, plan a pep rally that won't flop, or decorate the goal posts.

Practice and plans for the coming season began early in the summer, when the sweltering heat in somebody's back yard made the ever-enthusiastic cheer-leaders even more anxious for cool football weather. All this hard work was many times rewarded, though, as the victories for our team piled higher and higher.

"An out-of-town game the night before mid-terms!" Oh well, that's only part of your duty as one of Wilkes Central's "Seven"—and besides it's always fun riding on the basketball bus! Gee, all of it was fun. It's great to be a part in the "victory team!"

You goin' out for cheerleading next year?!

How well Linda, Sandra, Diane, Rita, Linda Jane, Julia, and Rebecca remember that rainy night at Hudson!

Time off from practice proves there's more than one way to get up in the world.

GIRLS' VARSITY

"1-2-3-4, 1-2-3-4! Watch those passes, guards! Drive in there now! Don't let her stop you!" could be heard in the gym as early as mid-November during third period. Coach Hubbard had our girls' varsity literally "on the ball" with hopes for a good season, even though graduation last year had left the team with only two seasoned players.

A victory of 71-41 in the first conference game with Hudson gave our Eagles a good start. After that the season was a "salt and pepper affair"—an even sprinkling of wins and losses. The final conference record was 8-8.

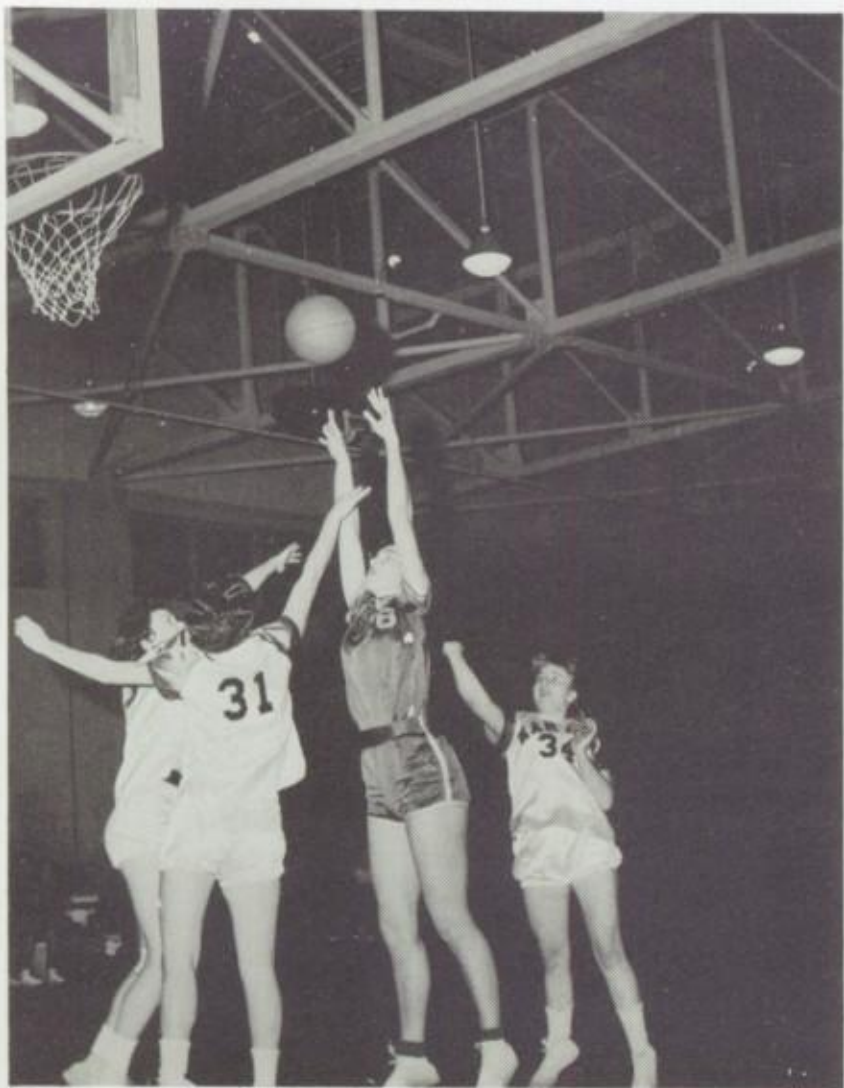

Since the junior players have gained valuable experience and the sophomores and freshmen have seen action, our Eagles look forward to a "rip-roaring" season next year.

Coleman gives moral support as Johnson and Foster jump for a rebound.

Johnson reaches far for that rebound!

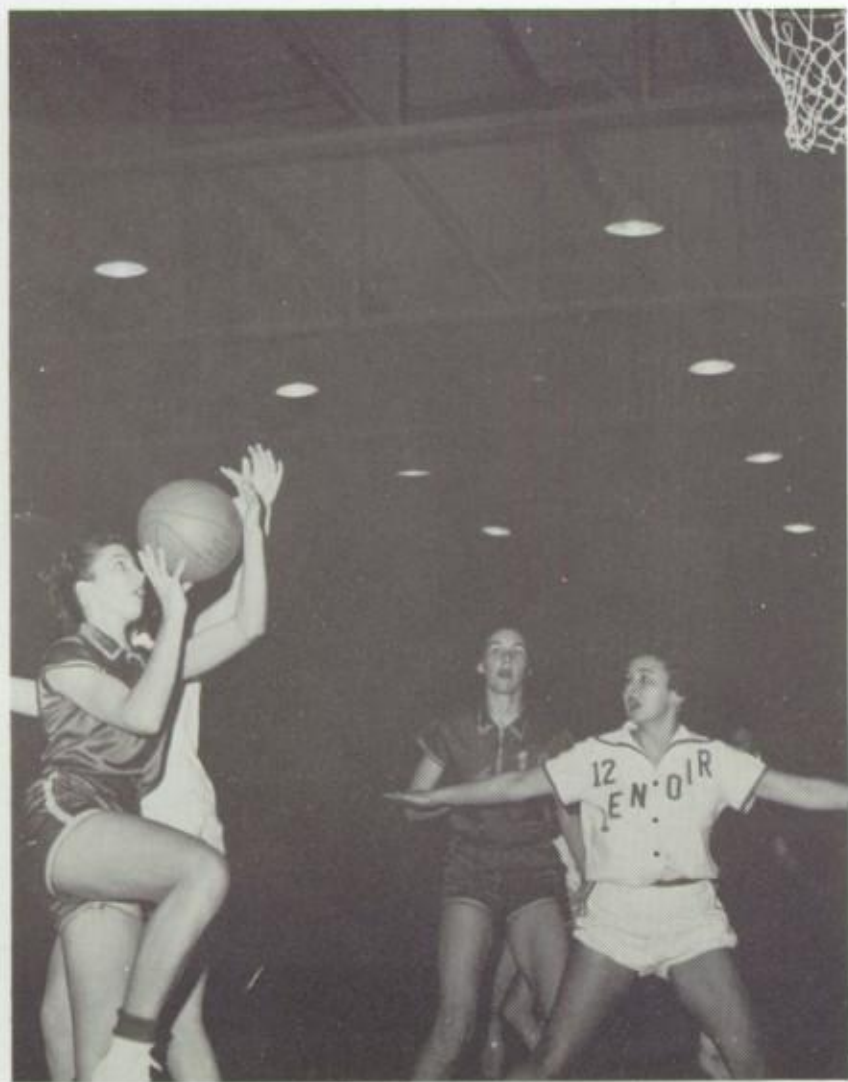

Another one for Central as Ingle pops it in.

BOYS' VARSITY

The loss of two seniors, and the need of finding the right team combination gave Coach Hoffman quite a lot to think about as the 1957-58 season began. Once again Wilkes Central offered a promising group of ballplayers, but, for reasons not too clear, the Eagles just did not have the final push to come out of the season a conference winner. They were never very far behind their opponents—losing many games by only 2 or 3 points—and often ahead during the first half. Still they seemed never to get over the bump and win consistently.

Returning lettermen this year were Robert Pipes, Jim Whicker and Kent Rhodes, forward; Jerry Moore, center; Gary Vannoy, and Harold McEntire, guard.

Whick's sure-aim jump shot leaves the Marion team flat-footed.

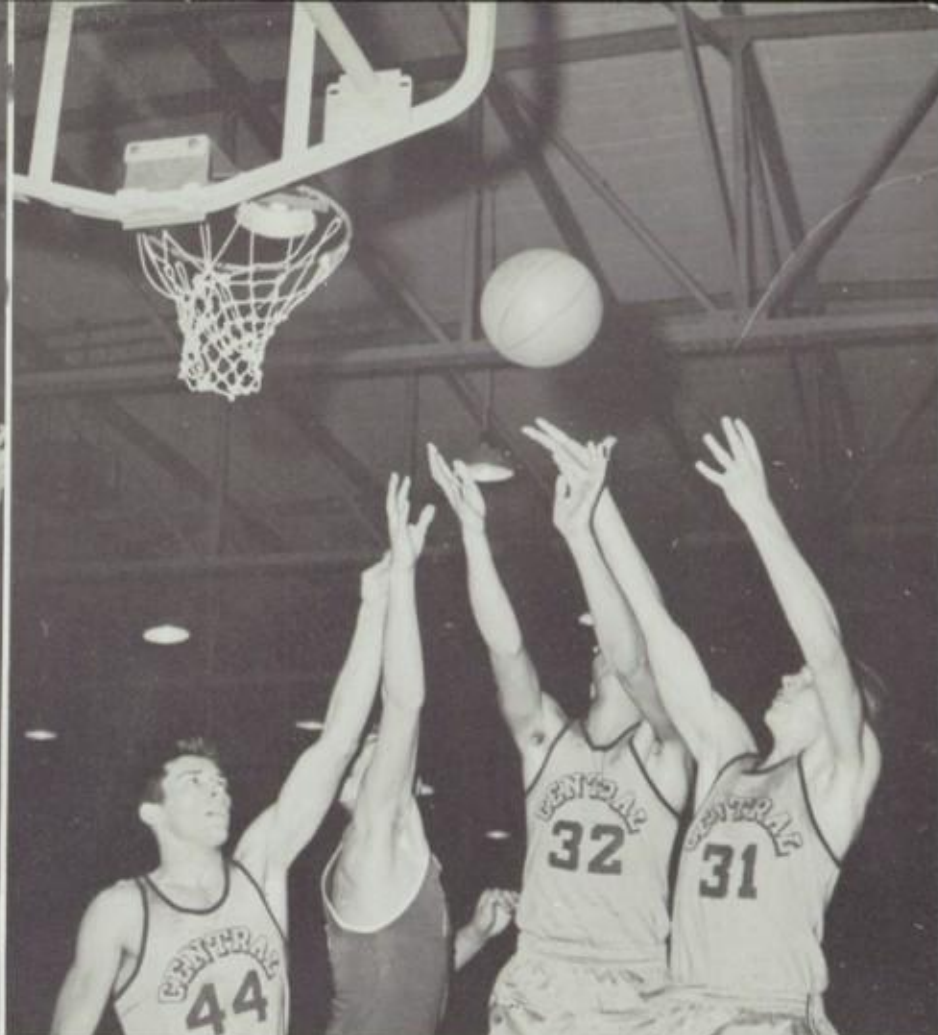

Even long-legged strides don't stop Vannoy.

Moore and Whicker seem to be causing their opponents distress.

Pipes, Whicker, and Rhodes give the Newton player a rough time on rebounds.

Mac flies through the air with the greatest of ease.

TRACK

Committing a racer's "don't," we glance back over our shoulder, but only a last year's track highlights. Our fleet-footed sportsmen competed in 2 conference meets at Hickory and 2 at Statesville, coming out in the finale with third place in a conference of 9 teams. Our mile relay team,—composed of Bing Somers, Augustine Qulici, Tom Pardue and Harold McEntire—placed third in the W.N.C. H.S.A.A. Meet of 32 teams at Davidson College. Also at Davidson, Jim Shumate broke his own earlier record, in the discus throw, adding further to Wilkes Central's achievements.

With the exception of 3 graduates, our track team returns this year in hopes of setting more records and gaining the conference title.

Pardue clears a hurdle in the non-conference meet against Elkin.

Whether you're a brawny football player, a pretty basketball star, a noisy cheerleader, or an industrious manager, you're in the Monogram Club—provided you've lettered and paid your dues. Yes, for the first time in the history of Wilkes Central, girls are allowed in the once all male club. Hmm . . . Could that be the reason for so much activity this year?

Toni collects for the Monogram pins from Diane and Sandra.

After the election of officers, one of Bill's first acts as president was, "All in favor of adopting this constitution say 'aye'." Then our attention turned to ordering pins. "Is your pin gold or silver? Are you getting a guard?" These were important decisions, for this, too, was a "first" for this rejuvenated Monogram Club. After receiving our pins on Awards Day, and possibly winning another letter, we terminated our club year with the delightful picnic given by the Quarterback Club at Taylorsville Lake.

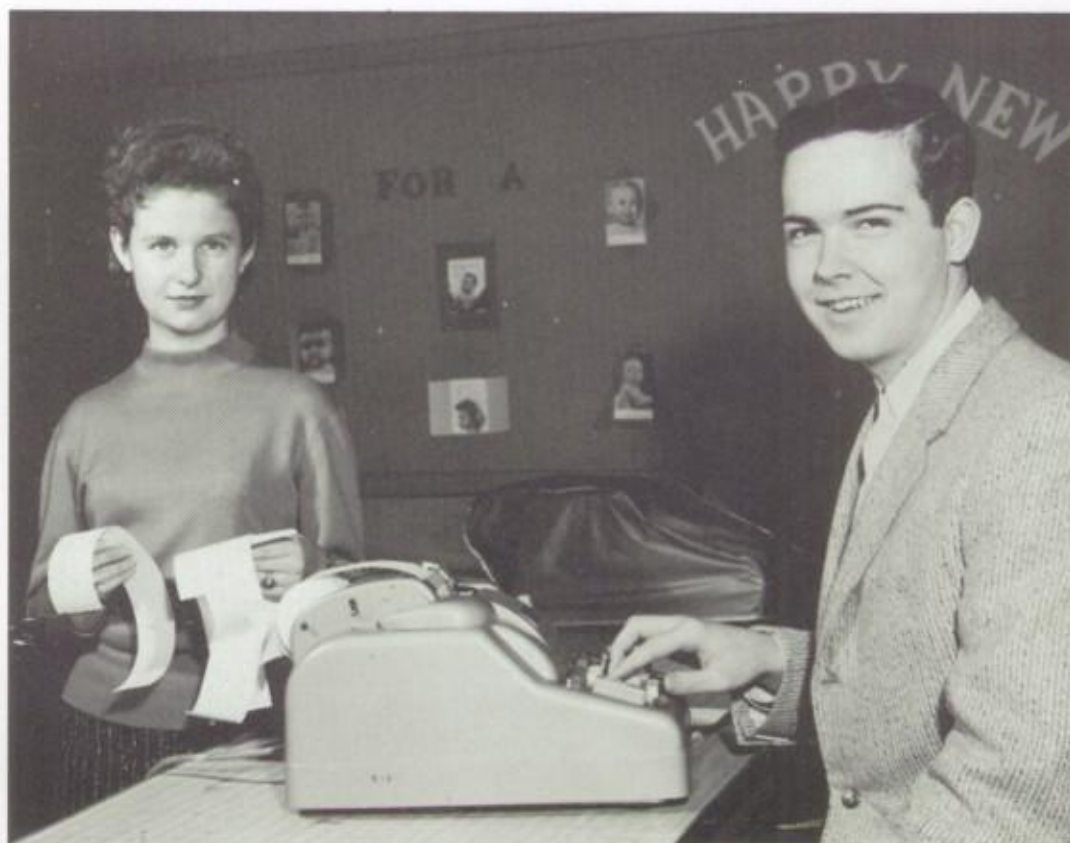

Individual honors and achievements mark Sarah Jane and Jim MOST OUTSTANDING.

SENIOR

Julia Ann and Henry, because of many abilities and activities, were voted MOST VERSATILE.

Judith and Jerry are adding up totals as they will continue adding up accomplishments, for they are MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED.

Achieving individually and co-operatively, Toni and Jim have proved themselves MOST INTELLIGENT.

SUPERLATIVES

Alan and Judy practice teamwork as they prove MOST DEPENDABLE.

Creating a friendly, pleasant atmosphere wherever they go, Linda Jo and Arvil display BEST PERSONALITY.

MOST POPULAR, Marie and Bill, count the morning mail as they count their many friends.

Anndora and Gary, skilled in skating and other sports, were chosen MOST ATHLETIC.

SENIOR

Tom and Linda, witty, cooperative, and unselfish, prove themselves BEST SPORTS.

Anne Lewis and Durant combine their talents for art and music as they represent MOST TALENTED.

SUPERLATIVES

At a single glance it is evident that Claude and Jane reflect BEST LOOKING.

Linda Jane and Roy, because of an ever-immaculate appearance, have merited the title of NEATEST.

HONORS

Out of the many students at Central there are a few who are chosen for special recognition because of outstanding scholarship, sports activities, citizenship, and leadership. With this recognition comes responsibility—the responsibility of personal example. The student body watches and patterns after them. The caliber of Wilkes Central's student body in future years depends greatly on those honored.

Henry Absher and Priscilla Reynolds of Andover, Massachusetts, talk with a German shopkeeper during the American Junior Red Cross Study Visit Program in Europe.

Sarah well deserves the honor of D.A.R. Good Citizen, which was bestowed upon her by the vote of her classmates.

Chosen by the American Legion, Jim Mills represented Central at Boys' State.

Because of outstanding citizenship and leadership, Sarah and Toni were chosen to represent Central at "Tar Heel" Girls' State.

Frank Crow and Jim Mills brought honor to Central by winning top prizes in the District Science Fair held in Boone.

Growing Up With Opportunity

While you've been growing up and "getting educated", opportunity has been growing, too. All around you, industry and business have multiplied. Electrification has increased farm yield while cutting down on labor and risk.

When you were sophomores, the Duke Power Company was beginning new plants to supply your power needs after graduation. Now ample, low-priced power increases your job opportunity, and Piedmont resources are ready for your energy and ideas. Good luck to you as you find your place in the Piedmont Carolinas.

Mary,
 I can't wait for your driveings.
 With we could have had some classes together this year.
 Maybe next year we can.
 Lots of success,
 Love
 Hope you can read this X.O.X.O

Mary,

Remember the fun we've had this year, even though the "crowd" didn't become 2 couples until rather late in the year. Stay just as sweet as you are always and don't forget to be good! I hope I'll be back next year to complete the 2 couples but if I'm not
 - Don't forget me - and remember - I'll never, never forget you!

Love Always,

Emmy

My dearest Mary, (Boy, that's a good one)

I have enjoyed being with you this year more than I can tell you! Boy! Did we cut up! If it hadn't been for you I would have sure been lonesome in there with that stinking ol' gripey squaw, (Lidden). Please remember all the good times we have had together. When I spent the night with you we had a ball, didn't we. Mary, please don't move away just because Emmy is. Ann, Emmy, you & I have had a lot of good times this sophomore year and I hope we have many more. You're a very sweet girl and I hope you'll always, always, be my friend. Best of luck always.

All my love,

Diana

Dear Mary,

Our two couples have made this year a lot of fun. You are a true friend and one really worth having. Latin, English, algebra, and biology were made more fun because of you. Your sense of humor makes you fun yet you know when to be serious. I love telephone calls, long and homeworky, oh goodness. You are sweet girl and I'll always remember you. Stay the way you are and go forward. my love always,
Ann Brookshire

Good Luck Mary,
I've enjoyed being in Algebra with you. You can certainly find some beautiful faces. You're a funny girl.
James Davis

Mary,
It's too fun
love you always
Sig

Love ya
always.
Carol Lou
James

Good luck to a fine woman.
John Meyer

Mary,
you are a fine
friend and neighbor.
We have really had some good times
this year and trouble also, especially, with the boys.
The best of everything
to a sweet and nice girl. Love always
"Sandy"

Mary,
I've really enjoyed
being your neighbor and classmate this year. I hope we can remain the same for many more years to come.
Best wishes and lots of luck for the coming years.
Love,
Jessie Lee

Mary,
I've really enjoyed being with you this year. Always remember those hard trips we had together and all the fun we had. Be good and may the best be yours.
Love ya
Charmie Moore

Mary,
Here's wishing the very sweetest
to one of the cutest
and best of life.
best of fun together
lots of from fun. I up and for times. I
You and for times. I the hard for times. I Latin this year. I and hope to see a lot of you.
Have fun this summer
and summer

P.S.
I sure do wish we could share a ^{dirty} locker together next year.
